THE VOICE OF FOGGY BOTTOM

Cheery Tyme In Foggy Bottom

Foggy Bottom has a Committee of Hosts to Effect Entertainment and Rejoicing for Youth. The children of Foggy Bottom will be the special guests at the CHEERY Party on Saturday, December 16, in the Children's Room of the West End Branch of the Library (24th and L Streets, N.W.).

Festivities will include caroling, a Brass Band Concert by members of the D. C. Youth Symphony, stories read to the little guests by the Children's Librarian, gifts of books for the youngsters, and of course, refreshments.

Mrs. William L. Simon is the CHEERY Chairman; her CHEERY assistants are:

Joan Williams and Judy Fleischhacker, book-gifts; Margaret Culhane, posters and notices; Frances Smith and Mrs. Walter Boardman, reception; Reverend and Mrs. Everett Abbott, decorations and favors; Paul Kennedy and Lonnie Sutor, refreshments; Charles Shorter, general arrangements; Virginia Mulroy will assist Mrs. Simon.

Everyone in Foggy Bottom is invited! We hope that all the children in the area will become familiar with their local library and visit frequently.

"CHEERY" NEEDS BOOKS, WILL CHEERILY GIFT WRAP

... deliver one book or many books—don't let the condition worry you—to 2407½ Eye Street, N.W.

A small picture book or an early story book which you give may be the turning point in the life of a youngster who will associate reading with pleasure remembered in the warm environment of our Library. Christmas '67 may be the motivating force behind book-filled years. We never know what can start a young person loving books—it may be the book you give this year at the CHEERY Party.

DECK THE HALLS

The Foggy Bottom Association will judge area Christmas decorations and award a prize to the resident whose home is judged most attractive. So be creative, you might just win something wonderful—like a lifetime subscription to the Foggy Bottom News. The "prize" is apt to be silly, but the contest is a serious one; let's "look like Christmas."

FOGGY BOTTOM IS LOSING A FRIEND

Father Charles E. Miller, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church and a familiar personality in Foggy Bottom, will be leaving Washington at the end of this year to accept a call to the rectorship of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Cincinnati, Ohio. Father Miller, who came to the Church on 23rd Street in June of 1956, has witnessed the development of Foggy Bottom and the FBA, and taken an active part in community and Association affairs. (One of his roles was as FBA Treasurer in 1965-66.)

During his rectorship, Father Miller has made St. Mary's available to the Association and to the Bottom on numerous occasions; many of us relaxed over the coffee served at the Church following the House and Garden Tours or attended the parts of the 1966 Foggy Bottom Arts Show which were held there.

All of his friends in Foggy Bottom wish Father Miller well in his new endeavor; we will miss him and his family.

LETTER TO FBA

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
 DEPARTMENT OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

Mr. Charles W. Schoeneman, President
 Foggy Bottom Civic Association

Dear Mr. Schoeneman:

We are beginning a comprehensive study to gather information on handicapped citizens so as to be able to make recommendations for needed rehabilitation services in our city. We are not only interested in those who can actually be restored to wage-earning status, but also in those whom we might help become less dependent on others.

In order for us to proceed, we must find out who the handicapped are, where they are, what their needs are, and what services are presently available to them. We must know what can be done to bridge the gap between the needs of the handicapped and the services currently being rendered by public and private agencies. In order to achieve our purpose, we must have guidance and suggestions from the District of Columbia community as a whole.

We believe that your group is in an excellent position to be aware of handicapped persons, and that you can present worthwhile views on how their needs should be met. It is very appropriate to say that our project is, in substance, your project.

We would be delighted to hear from you and eventually have you participate in hearings that will be held to give ample opportunity to all the groups and organizations of the District to express themselves on the basic issues to which our project is addressed.

Very sincerely yours,

E. PAUL BENOIT, PH.D.

FOGGY BOTTOM'S OLDEST — A RELIABLE INSTITUTION

MARY ANDERSON RECEIVES MEDAL FROM POPE

Mrs. Mary M. Anderson, a native Washingtonian, who has served St. Stephen Martyr Church as housekeeper for 25 years, has been presented with the Benermerenti medal "for distinguished service in the Christian community" from Pope Paul VI. Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, Archbishop of Washington, made the presentation to Mrs. Anderson at the Centennial Banquet held recently at the Mayflower Hotel—with over 250 priests, sisters, parishioners and friends of St. Stephen's present.

The Rev. John S. Wintermyer, a former assistant pastor at St. Stephen's (now assistant Newman Chaplain at the University of Maryland) read the citation conferring "upon Mrs. Mary Anderson the gold Benermerenti medal . . . grant[ing] her the right to wear it."

Monsignor Joseph F. Denges, pastor of St. Stephen's since 1949 presented Mary with $1,000 in bonds on behalf of the priests and members of the parish.

Mary, who has been a faithful "mother" to all of the many resident priests of St. Stephen's since her arrival in 1942, said in her eloquent thank-you that "the priests are all my children and I have enjoyed every minute of my association with St. Stephen's."

After the presentation at the Mayflower, the entire assemblage serenaded St. Stephen's favorite housekeeper with George M. Cohan's "Mary." We add our congratulations.

NOVEMBER MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

At the November 27 FBA meeting: membership chairman Nancy Young reported 40 new members in the Association; a postponement of the upper Northwest "town meeting" was announced (see page 6); a Christmas party for Foggy Bottom youngsters was suggested—several residents volunteered to plan and run the event (see page 1); a motion carried that the FBA publicize the request for donations to the widow of Pvt. Gilbert M. Silvia, 3rd Precinct policeman slain in November (see page for further information); the Association voted to work for a constructive program to alleviate the problems surrounding Washington National Airport.

TOWN MEETING POSTPONED

Look for the upper Northwest "town meeting," originally scheduled for December 3 at Wilson High School, to take place during the second week in January. Stephan Pollack, a former Special Assistant to President Johnson on District Affairs will chair the meeting. D. C. Mayor Walter Washington and his deputy, Thomas Fletcher, will attend. In May, Mr. Fletcher will speak at the regular meeting of the Foggy Bottom Association.

UP AND COMING

David Carliner, Washington attorney who is Chairman of the Home Rule Committee and the District's leading individual in the fight for home rule, is on the '68 FBA speaker's agenda.

Senator Wayne Morse (D., Oregon) will speak at the February FBA meeting. Senator Morse was originally scheduled to speak at the December meeting, which has been cancelled.

"SERVING FOGGY BOTTOM FOR OVER 30 YEARS"

Yes, Virginia . . . There Is a Santa Claus!

It was the year 1897. Virginia O'Hanlon, a little New York girl was beginning to feel the disillusionment of life as her childhood fancies and beliefs were being crushed by her playmates scorn. With their superior knowledge of all things real and unreal they scoffed at Virginia's belief in Santa Claus. Finally Virginia wrote to the New York Sun. Her letter was as follows:

Dear Editor:

I am nine years old. Some of my friends say there isn't any Santa Claus. Papa says "If you see it in the Sun it's so." Please tell me the truth; is there a Santa Claus?

Virginia O'Hanlon

"Virginia, your little friends are wrong.

"They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible for their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or little children's, are little. In this great universe of ours, man is a mere insect, an ant in intellect compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole truth and knowledge.

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus.

"He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound, and give you life in its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then; no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

"Not believe in Santa Claus? You might as well not believe in fairies. You might get your papa to hire men to watch all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus; but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see.

"Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders that are unseen and unseeable in the world.

"You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there's a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man nor the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push the supernatural beauty and glory beyond. Is it real? Ah, Virginia in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

"No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the hearts of childhood."
